

MORNING APPEAL

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 15

SILVER PARTY TICKET

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS:
HON. THOMAS WREN,
OF EUREKA.
HON. M. S. BONNIFIELD,
OF HUMBOLDT.
HON. C. C. POWNING,
OF WASHOE.
ALTERNATE ELECTORS:
HON. Geo. S. Nixon, Of Humboldt
HON. Geo. Brown, Of Storey
HON. W. J. Westerfield, Of Lyon

A WAIL FROM GOLD-BUGS.

The Wall Street influence in the West, and especially Virginia and Carson, in urging the silver men to stand for Harrison, otherwise it is said if the State goes for Weaver it may throw the election in the house and Cleveland be elected. In Indiana the Democrats are appealing to the members of the People's party on the same line. Their orators from the stump urge the people not to vote for Weaver, and say to them: "If you cannot support Cleveland and the Democratic party vote for Harrison; we want no third party. There is no use for a third party. One or the other of the two old parties can give relief to the country and will do it better and safer than the third party."

The above is the cry that Wall street and the combines, trusts and corporations are everywhere echoing. It is also urged by the combine in Reno, the mint-drops in Carson and the Mills mining and railroad combination in Storey county. If anything is necessary to convince the people that the money power controls both old parties, this appeal to vote and support the old parties should be sufficient. Why should a Democrat prefer Harrison or a Republican prefer Cleveland to Weaver? Weaver for sixteen years has been an earnest and consistent advocate of free coinage of silver. All the labor organizations which now compose the People's party have from their first organization favored free coinage. The two old parties have ever since 1873 been opposed to it. If not, why have we not free coinage to-day. The platforms of these parties favoring free coinage were false and designed by the manipulators of the parties to postpone for free coinage as long as possible by keeping the people within old party lines under the false pretense that these parties were favorable to silver, and thus prevent an upheaval and the organization of a new party, through which relief might be had. No sane man believes that either of the old parties will or can remonetize silver. All know that both parties and all the machinery of both parties are in the hands of Wall street and under its absolute control; that the only hope for silver is in the success of the third party. No man can favor the election of Harrison or Cleveland if he be a true silver man. Any man who professes to be in favor of restoring silver to the place it occupied before demonetized in 1873, and still advocates the election of Harrison or Cleveland, so stultifies himself as to be unworthy of belief; and no man of sense can or does believe him. The true policy is to vote for Weaver and Field, the only friends of silver on any ticket before the American people.—Silver State.

A Pitiful Plea.

A letter to Dr. Jenkins, signed by 44 lady passengers of the Rugia, stated that they desired to emphasize the general protest. "Six of us," they say, "have families of little children aboard with us, and we see with painful apprehension the little one in the steerage suddenly stricken down. We are in alarming proximity to the awful disease, and we ask in the name of humanity why should this perilous exposure be continued for a single day. In the name of humanity and civilization, and in the name of God, we demand immediate succor."

A correspondent writing to the APPEAL says: "If the editor of the Tribune put in as much time rustling news as he does in hunting Harrison men, he would have a much brighter paper."

Our correspondent forgets that a hint of this kind requires so much attention that nothing else must interfere with it.
